

RUSTICATION

Meaning: Rustication is the architectural technique of using rough, textured stonework to create a rustic appearance and contrast with smoother surfaces.

1. The architect's use of rustication added a rustic charm to the otherwise modern building.
2. In classical architecture, rustication is often employed to create a striking contrast between smooth and textured surfaces.
3. The stone facade featured intricate rustication that emphasized its grandeur and historical significance.
4. Critics praised the artist for incorporating elements of rustication in his latest sculpture, which reflected a deep connection to nature.
5. The historic district is known for its buildings adorned with beautiful rustication, showcasing craftsmanship from a bygone era.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rustication>