

RUSTILY

Meaning: RUSTILY: In a manner that suggests deterioration or neglect, often characterized by a rough or unrefined quality.

1. He spoke rustily, as if the words had not been used in a long time.
2. The old door creaked rustily, warning us of its age and neglect.
3. She laughed rustily, a sound that reminded me of the wind howling through a broken window.
4. He moved rustily across the stage, his joints protesting with each step.
5. The rusty gate swung open rustily, revealing the overgrown garden within.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rustily>