

RUSTLE

Meaning: Rustle (verb): to make a soft, muffled crackling or fluttering sound, typically caused by the movement of leaves, paper, or small animals.

1. The leaves began to rustle gently in the evening breeze.
2. She heard a rustle in the bushes and turned to see a rabbit darting away.
3. As the children played in the park, the sound of their laughter mingled with the rustle of the trees.
4. The rustle of paper filled the quiet room as he searched for his notes.
5. In the stillness of the night, the rustle of the grass hinted at the presence of unseen creatures.
6. The rustle of leaves in the gentle breeze created a soothing background melody.
7. She could hear the rustle of paper as he flipped through the pages of the old book.
8. In the quiet of the night, the rustle of small animals in the underbrush broke the silence.
9. The rustle of her dress as she walked past him caught his attention immediately.
10. He paused to listen to the rustle of the wind through the tall grass on the hillside.
11. The rustle of leaves in the wind created a soothing background noise.
12. She heard a faint rustle in the bushes and turned to see what it was.
13. As the wind picked up, the rustle of the paper made it hard to concentrate.
14. In the quiet of the night, the rustle of small animals could be heard in the underbrush.
15. The rustle of the crowd faded as the speaker took the stage.