

Rustling

Meaning: Rustling refers to the soft, muffled sound produced by the movement of leaves, paper, or similar materials.

1. The rustling of leaves in the gentle breeze created a soothing backdrop for the afternoon picnic.
2. She paused, listening to the rustling in the bushes, unsure if it was an animal or just the wind.
3. As the wind picked up, the rustling of the tall grass became a rhythmic whisper across the field.
4. The rustling of pages in the library was the only sound that accompanied her deep concentration.
5. His heart raced at the sound of rustling behind him, a reminder of the forest's hidden inhabitants.
6. The rustling of the paper as she unfolded the letter made her heart skip a beat with anticipation.
7. In the quiet of the night, the rustling of the wind through the trees felt like nature's lullaby.
8. She could hear the rustling of her cat in the cardboard box, clearly plotting its next playful adventure.
9. The rustling sound grew louder as the deer emerged from the thicket, cautiously stepping into the clearing.
10. With each rustling step through the underbrush, they knew they were drawing closer to their campsite.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rustling>