

RUTHFUL

Meaning: Ruthful (adjective): expressing or characterized by deep sorrow or regret.

1. Her ruthful expression conveyed the depth of her sorrow after hearing the news.
2. In a ruthful moment, he recalled the friendships he had lost over the years.
3. The poem captured a ruthful longing for a simpler, happier time.
4. During the ceremony, the speaker delivered a ruthful tribute to the beloved community leader.
5. She spoke with a ruthful honesty that moved everyone in the room to tears.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ruthful>