

SACCHARIC

Meaning: SACCHARIC: relating to or derived from sugars or saccharides, often used to describe properties or compounds that involve sweetness or fermentation.

1. The saccharic properties of the fruit made it an excellent choice for natural sweeteners.
2. Researchers discovered that the saccharic acid in certain plants could enhance fermentation processes.
3. In cooking, saccharic compounds can significantly alter the flavor profile of dishes.
4. The study focused on how saccharic substances interact with different types of yeast.
5. Herbal teas often contain saccharic elements that contribute to their soothing effects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saccharic>