

SACCHARIMETRICAL

Meaning: Saccharimetical refers to methods or analyses related to the measurement of sugar concentration or sweetness in substances.

1. The saccharimetical analysis revealed the exact concentration of sugars in the solution.
2. Researchers utilized a saccharimetical method to assess the sweetness levels of various fruits.
3. In the laboratory, the saccharimetical equipment provided accurate readings of glucose content.
4. Understanding saccharimetical principles is essential for food scientists studying taste.
5. The saccharimetical data collected during the experiment suggested a correlation between sugar type and flavor intensity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saccharimetical>