

SACCIFORM

Meaning: SACCIFORM refers to a shape or structure that is sac-like, often used to describe anatomical features that store substances such as nutrients or water.

1. The sacciform structure of the organism allowed it to efficiently store nutrients.
2. In botanical studies, the sacciform leaves of certain plants are adapted for water retention.
3. Researchers discovered a rare species with a sacciform body that aids in buoyancy.
4. The sacciform nature of the pouch was crucial for the reproductive success of the species.
5. During the dissection, the sacciform organs were carefully examined for their unique properties.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sacciform>