

SACK

Meaning: SACK (verb): to dismiss someone from a job or position; (noun): a large bag made of strong material used for storing or transporting items.

1. The coach decided to sack the player after his repeated disciplinary issues.
2. She packed her belongings into a large sack before moving to a new city.
3. After losing the game, the team felt as if they had been given the sack by their fans.
4. He found a sack of potatoes at the market that was perfect for his stew.
5. The company was forced to sack several employees due to budget cuts.
6. The coach decided to sack the player after his repeated poor performances.
7. The thief escaped with a sack full of stolen goods under his arm.
8. After a long day at work, all he wanted to do was relax and sink into his soft sack.
9. They used a burlap sack to collect the fallen apples from the orchard.
10. The coach decided to sack the player after his poor performance in the game.
11. I found an old sack of potatoes in the back of the pantry.
12. After the scandal, the CEO was forced to sack several employees to restore trust in the company.
13. She carried the sleeping bag and a sack of snacks for their camping trip.
14. The thief was caught trying to escape with a sack full of stolen merchandise.
15. The old man carried a heavy sack of potatoes on his shoulder.
16. After being late to work for the third time, she received a pink slip and was told to pack her sack.
17. He filled the sack with leaves to prepare for the autumn cleanup.
18. The coach decided to sack the player after his repeated mistakes during the game.
19. In the game, players try to sack the quarterback before he can throw the ball.
20. The coach decided to sack the player after repeated violations of team rules.
21. She carefully packed her belongings into a large sack for the move.

22. After the long hike, he collapsed on the ground, his backpack feeling like a heavy sack.
23. They used an old burlap sack to store the potatoes from the garden.
24. The company's decision to sack several employees shocked the entire staff.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sack>