

SACKFUL

Meaning: SACKFUL (noun): A quantity of items that can be contained in a sack, often referring to a large amount of produce or goods.

1. She arrived at the market with a sackful of fresh vegetables.
2. After the harvest, they celebrated with a sackful of ripe apples.
3. The children giggled as they dragged a sackful of candy from the store.
4. He collected a sackful of leaves to use for his compost pile.
5. In the attic, they found a sackful of forgotten toys from their childhood.
6. The gardener brought a sackful of fresh tomatoes to the market.
7. After the storm, the children collected a sackful of fallen leaves for their art project.
8. He was delighted to receive a sackful of homemade cookies from his grandmother.
9. They filled a sackful of dog food to ensure their pets had enough for the week.
10. During the harvest festival, we managed to gather a sackful of apples from the orchard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sackful>