

SACKING

Meaning: SACKING (noun): the act of dismissing someone from their job, particularly in a sports or managerial context.

1. The sacking of the coach left the team in disarray.
2. After a series of poor performances, the manager faced the possibility of sacking.
3. The sudden sacking of the CEO surprised many employees at the company.
4. Sacking a player mid-season is often a controversial decision for any coach.
5. The sacking of the corrupt official was celebrated by the community as a victory for justice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sacking>