

SACRIFICANT

Meaning: Sacrificant: A person who offers a sacrifice, often as part of a religious or ritualistic practice, symbolizing devotion and loyalty.

1. The ancient ritual required a sacrificant to offer a personal belonging to the gods.
2. In many cultures, being a sacrificant was considered an honor, symbolizing devotion and loyalty.
3. The village chose a young woman to be the sacrificant, believing her purity would appease the spirits.
4. Historically, the role of the sacrificant often came with great responsibility and expectation.
5. As the sun set, the ceremony commenced, with the sacrificant stepping forward with a trembling heart.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sacrificant>