

SACRIFICATOR

Meaning: Sacrificator: a person who performs sacrifices, especially in religious or ritualistic ceremonies, often holding a significant and respected position within the community.

1. The ancient ritual required a skilled sacrificator to perform the ceremony with utmost precision.
2. In historical texts, the role of the sacrificator was often depicted as both revered and feared by the community.
3. The sacrificator chanted sacred verses while preparing the offerings at the altar.
4. To understand the full significance of the event, one must consider the traditions upheld by the sacrificator.
5. Many cultures believed that the sacrificator acted as a mediator between the divine and the mortal realms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sacrificator>