SACRING

Meaning: SACRING (noun): A ceremonial or sacred place, often associated with victory or celebration, typically marked by a structure or monument.

1. The knights gathered around the sacring to celebrate their victories in battle.
2. In the early morning light, the sacring stood majestic, a testament to ancient craftsmanship.
3. During the festival, the community performed a ritual around the sacring to honor their ancestors.
4. As the priest began the ceremony, the air filled with a sense of reverence at the sacring.
5. The artist's depiction of the sacring captured both its grandeur and spiritual significance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sacring