

SACRISTAN

Meaning: A sacristan is a person responsible for the care and maintenance of a church's sacred objects and the preparation of the altar for services.

1. The sacristan diligently prepared the altar for the evening service.
2. After the renovation, the sacristan took extra care to restore the church's sacred artifacts.
3. Each Sunday, the sacristan ensured that all the liturgical items were in their proper places.
4. Volunteering as a sacristan gave her a deeper appreciation for the rituals of her faith.
5. The sacristan was responsible for maintaining the cleanliness of the sacred space.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sacristan>