

SAILCLOTH

Meaning: Sailcloth is a strong, durable fabric typically made from cotton, polyester, or nylon, used for making sails, tents, and other outdoor gear.

1. The old boat was covered with sailcloth that had weathered many storms.
2. Crafting a durable tent, she chose a sailcloth material known for its strength.
3. The vibrant colors of the sailcloth caught the sunlight as the boat glided across the water.
4. He admired the intricate stitching on the sailcloth, a testament to the artisan's skill.
5. After the adventure at sea, they used the leftover sailcloth to make a stylish backpack.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sailcloth>