

SAINTSHIP

Meaning: Saintship refers to the state or condition of being a saint, characterized by exceptional virtue and a higher spiritual calling.

1. The concept of sainthood often includes the notion of saintship, where individuals are recognized for their exceptional virtue.
2. In many cultures, saintship is seen as a divine calling, elevating one's life to a higher spiritual purpose.
3. The process of canonization involves a rigorous examination of a candidate's life to determine their eligibility for saintship.
4. Throughout history, the idea of saintship has inspired countless acts of charity and selflessness among believers.
5. Her tireless dedication to helping the less fortunate earned her a reputation that many believed deserved saintship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saintship>