

SALIENT

Meaning: Salient: most noticeable or important; prominent in a particular context.

1. The most salient feature of the painting is its vibrant use of color.
2. In her presentation, she highlighted the salient points of the research study.
3. The salient characteristics of the species make it easy to identify in the wild.
4. During the debate, his arguments were particularly salient and captured the audience's attention.
5. The architect emphasized the salient aspects of the building's design to enhance its appeal.
6. The salient features of the landscape were highlighted by the setting sun.
7. In her speech, she emphasized the salient points that needed immediate attention.
8. The most salient aspect of the painting was its vibrant use of color.
9. During the debate, he made several salient arguments that swayed public opinion.
10. Her salient qualities as a leader include empathy and decisiveness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/salient>