

SALIFICATION

Meaning: Salification is the process of forming salts through a chemical reaction.

1. Salification refers to the process of forming salts through a chemical reaction.
2. The salification of the solution resulted in the formation of crystalline structures.
3. In the laboratory, the scientist studied the salification process of various compounds.
4. Understanding salification is crucial for developing effective fertilizers in agriculture.
5. The salification reaction was carefully monitored to ensure optimal conditions were maintained.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/salification>