

SALIFY

Meaning: To salify means to convert a substance into a salt, typically by reacting an acid with a base.

1. The researchers aimed to salify the compound to enhance its solubility in water.
2. To salify the acidic solution, they carefully added a base until the pH reached neutrality.
3. In order to improve the flavor profile, the chef decided to salify the dish with a touch of sea salt.
4. The process to salify the minerals was crucial for their application in the food industry.
5. After experimenting with various ingredients, they found the perfect way to salify the mixture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/salify>