

SALINIFEROUS

Meaning: Saliniferous refers to containing or producing salt, particularly in relation to soil or geological deposits.

1. The saliniferous nature of the soil made it difficult for many plants to thrive in the region.
2. Geologists were particularly interested in the saliniferous deposits found in the ancient lake beds.
3. Researchers are studying saliniferous wetlands to understand their unique ecosystems and biodiversity.
4. The saliniferous waters of the estuary have a distinct impact on the surrounding wildlife.
5. Agricultural practices in saliniferous areas often require careful management to prevent soil degradation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saliniferous>