

SALINOMETER

Meaning: A salinometer is an instrument used to measure the salinity or salt concentration of a solution, particularly seawater.

1. The salinometer is an essential tool for measuring the salinity of seawater in marine research.
2. Researchers utilized a salinometer to determine the optimal salt concentration for their experiments.
3. In aquaculture, a salinometer helps maintain the ideal environment for aquatic organisms.
4. The accurate readings from the salinometer allowed the scientists to adjust the saline levels in their study.
5. Using a salinometer, the team discovered unexpected variations in salinity across different ocean depths.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/salinometer>