

SALIVANT

Meaning: Salivant (adjective): characterized by excessive salivation or drooling, often in response to the anticipation of food.

1. The dog's salivant behavior increased as it caught the scent of the delicious roast chicken.
2. During the cooking class, the chef noticed that students became salivant at the thought of their favorite desserts.
3. The salivant expression on the child's face was unmistakable when the ice cream truck arrived.
4. As the waiter approached with the menu, I found myself feeling quite salivant at the prospect of a gourmet meal.
5. The aroma of fresh-baked cookies made the entire room salivant with anticipation.
6. The dog was a salivant, eagerly waiting for its owner to drop a piece of food.
7. In the presence of the delectable feast, the salivant guests couldn't help but drool in anticipation.
8. Her salivant expression revealed just how much she craved the juicy steak on the grill.
9. As the chef plated the dish, he noticed the salivant diners leaning forward in their seats.
10. The sight of the chocolate cake made him a salivant, unable to resist its tempting allure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/salivant>