

SALTIMBANCO

Meaning: A saltimbanco is a performer, often in a circus or street setting, known for acrobatics and entertaining acts, typically characterized by colorful costumes and dynamic performances.

1. The saltimbanco performed daring acrobatics that left the audience in awe.
2. As a child, I dreamed of becoming a saltimbanco, captivated by their vibrant costumes and energetic routines.
3. The festival featured a saltimbanco who juggled flaming torches while balancing on a tightrope.
4. In his latest show, the saltimbanco blended traditional circus acts with modern dance, creating a unique spectacle.
5. She admired the saltimbanco's artistry, marveling at how he effortlessly engaged the crowd with his charm and skill.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saltimbanco>