

SALTLY

Meaning: 'SALTLY' refers to something that has the quality or flavor of salt, often used to describe a salty taste or characteristic.

1. The ocean air was filled with a salty breeze that invigorated our senses.
2. She added a salty touch to the dish, enhancing its flavor wonderfully.
3. The salty waves crashed against the rocky shore, leaving a frothy residue.
4. As the sun set, the salty scent of the sea mingled with the warmth of the sand.
5. His skin glistened with a salty coating after a long day of surfing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saltly>