SANABILITY

Meaning: Sanability refers to the capacity of an ecosystem or environment to maintain health and sustainability, particularly in relation to biodiversity and quality of life.

1. The sanability of the ecosystem is crucial for maintaining biodiversity.
2. In urban planning, the sanability of green spaces can enhance residents' quality of life.
3. Researchers are focusing on the sanability of different materials to improve recycling processes.
4. The sanability of the local water supply was a key factor in the community's sustainability efforts.
5. Efforts to increase the sanability of the soil have led to significantly better crop yields.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sanability