SANABLENESS

Meaning: Sanableness refers to the quality or state of being capable of restoration or healing, particularly in relation to ecosystems or health practices.

1. The sanableness of the ecosystem was evident in the thriving plant and animal life.
2. Researchers are exploring the sanableness of traditional remedies in modern medicine.
3. To ensure the sanableness of the urban area, city planners are implementing green spaces.
4. The community focused on the sanableness of their practices to foster long-term sustainability.
5. Education plays a crucial role in enhancing the sanableness of agricultural techniques.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sanableness