

SANCTIMONIAL

Meaning: Sanctimonial refers to a hypocritically pious or self-righteous attitude or behavior that conveys moral superiority.

1. Her sanctimonial attitude during the meeting alienated her colleagues.
2. The sanctimonial tone of his speech made it difficult for others to engage in an honest discussion.
3. They were tired of his sanctimonial remarks about their lifestyle choices.
4. She often masked her flaws with a sanctimonial façade that others found off-putting.
5. His sanctimonial insistence on morality was contradicted by his own questionable actions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sanctimonial>