

SANG-FROID

Meaning: Sang-froid refers to composure or coolness shown in stressful situations.

1. Her sang-froid in the face of the emergency inspired confidence in everyone around her.
2. Even under immense pressure, he maintained his sang-froid, calmly addressing the chaotic situation.
3. Demonstrating remarkable sang-froid, she delivered her speech without a hint of nervousness.
4. The detective's sang-froid during the intense interrogation left the suspect visibly shaken.
5. In the midst of the storm, his sang-froid was a beacon of stability for the entire crew.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sang-froid>