

SANGUIFEROUS

Meaning: Sanguiferous: (adjective) relating to or conveying blood; involved in the transport of blood or oxygen in biological tissues.

1. The researcher focused on the sanguiferous nature of the tissue to understand its role in oxygen transport.
2. In medicine, sanguiferous vessels are crucial for delivering nutrients and removing waste from tissues.
3. The sanguiferous characteristics of certain organisms have fascinated scientists studying their evolutionary adaptations.
4. Her sanguiferous complexion suggested a vibrant health that was often the envy of her peers.
5. The doctor explained that the sanguiferous system plays a vital role in maintaining overall homeostasis within the body.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sanguiferous>