

SANGUIFY

Meaning: SANGUIFY (verb): To imbue an environment or atmosphere with a warm, vibrant, and often red or blood-like quality.

1. He felt a surge of energy as the spell began to sanguify the room with a warm, crimson glow.
2. To sanguify the atmosphere of the gathering, she decorated with vibrant red flowers and candles.
3. The artist aimed to sanguify the canvas, using deep reds to evoke passion and intensity in her work.
4. As the sun set, the sky began to sanguify, casting a beautiful reddish hue over the horizon.
5. The chef decided to sanguify the dish with a rich tomato sauce, enhancing its flavor and appearance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sanguify>