

SAPONIFIABLE

Meaning: Saponifiable refers to substances, particularly fatty acids or oils, that can be converted into soap through the process of saponification.

1. Certain fatty acids are saponifiable, meaning they can be transformed into soap through the process of saponification.
2. The chemist explained that saponifiable oils are essential for creating effective cleansing products.
3. In the production of biodiesel, it is important to identify which fats are saponifiable in order to ensure proper conversion.
4. The recipe called for saponifiable ingredients, emphasizing the need for natural oils to achieve the desired texture.
5. When studying lipid chemistry, one discovers that not all fats are saponifiable, leading to interesting discussions about their properties.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saponifiable>