

SAPPY

Meaning: SAPPY: overly sentimental or emotional, often to the point of being cloying or insincere.

1. The movie was so sappy that I could hardly hold back my tears.
2. She rolled her eyes at the sappy love songs playing on the radio.
3. His sappy poem about their relationship made her smile despite herself.
4. They shared a sappy moment under the stars, wrapped in a cozy blanket.
5. I always find those sappy romantic comedies to be a guilty pleasure.
6. Her romantic gestures were so sappy that they made even the most hardened cynics smile.
7. The movie was criticized for its sappy dialogue and predictable plot twists.
8. Despite its sappy moments, the film managed to capture the essence of true love beautifully.
9. He wrote her a sappy love letter that she cherished for years.
10. The song was filled with sappy lyrics that tugged at the heartstrings of listeners.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sappy>