

SARABAND

Meaning: A saraband is a slow, stately dance in triple time, often associated with the Baroque period and characterized by its elegant and graceful movements.

1. The elegant movement in the dance reminded me of a graceful saraband.
2. In the concert, the composer chose to feature a beautiful saraband from the Baroque period.
3. Her interpretation of the saraband captured the essence of its melancholic beauty.
4. The saraband is often characterized by its slow, triple meter and expressive style.
5. As the dancers performed the saraband, the audience was captivated by their fluidity and poise.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saraband>