

SARCASM

Meaning: Sarcasm is the use of irony or mocking language to convey contempt or to express a meaning opposite to the literal interpretation.

1. Her tone was laced with sarcasm, making it clear she didn't actually believe what she was saying.
2. He often used sarcasm to mask his true feelings, believing it made him seem more relatable.
3. The comedian's sharp wit and sarcasm kept the audience laughing throughout the entire show.
4. When she replied with sarcasm, it was hard to tell whether she was being serious or just joking around.
5. His sarcasm often went over people's heads, leaving him feeling misunderstood in social situations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sarcasm>