

SARCASTIC

Meaning: SARCASTIC: characterized by the use of irony or mocking humor to convey contempt or to amuse, often highlighting absurdities in a serious context.

1. Her sarcastic remarks always leave the room in stitches, even when the topic is serious.
2. He had a sarcastic way of commenting on the weather that made everyone laugh despite the dreary day.
3. When she said she loved his cooking, her tone was so sarcastic that he knew he had to improve.
4. His sarcastic comments often masked a deeper frustration with the situation at hand.
5. Even in serious discussions, she couldn't resist making a sarcastic quip that lightened the mood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sarcastic>