

SARCASTICALLY

Meaning: In a manner that involves using irony to mock or convey contempt.

1. She responded sarcastically, rolling her eyes at the absurd suggestion.
2. "Great job!" he said sarcastically, clearly unimpressed with the outcome.
3. When she asked if he was excited about the trip, he replied sarcastically, "Oh, absolutely thrilled."
4. He raised an eyebrow and said sarcastically, "Yeah, because that plan has worked so well in the past."
5. Her sarcastically delivered compliment left everyone in the room unsure whether to laugh or cringe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sarcastically>