

SARCIN

Meaning: Sarcin is a protein produced by certain fungi that contributes to food spoilage and is being investigated for its potential use as a biopesticide.

1. Sarcin is a protein secreted by certain fungi that can cause food spoilage.
2. Researchers are exploring the potential of sarcin as a biopesticide in agriculture.
3. In some studies, sarcin has been shown to inhibit the growth of harmful bacteria.
4. The unique structure of sarcin makes it a subject of interest in biochemical research.
5. Sarcin's enzymatic properties could lead to advancements in industrial biotechnology.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sarcin>