

SARKING

Meaning: Sarking refers to the act of making loud, playful, or silly noises, often in a carefree or exuberant manner.

1. The children were sarking loudly as they played in the backyard.
2. She couldn't help but laugh at her friend's sarking during the movie.
3. The comedian's sarking kept the audience in stitches throughout the show.
4. He noticed the sarking of the birds as dawn broke over the horizon.
5. Their sarking at the party created a lively and cheerful atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sarking>