

SATCHEL

Meaning: A satchel is a bag with a shoulder strap, typically used for carrying books or personal items.

1. She slung the leather satchel over her shoulder as she headed out the door.
2. The satchel was filled with old books and notes from her college days.
3. He admired the intricate stitching on the handmade satchel displayed in the window.
4. After years of use, the satchel had developed a charming patina that told its own story.
5. She reached into her satchel to retrieve her notebook before the meeting began.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/satchel>