

SATIRIZE

Meaning: To satirize means to use humor, irony, or exaggeration to criticize or mock individuals, ideas, or societal norms.

1. The comedian used his latest stand-up routine to satirize the absurdities of modern politics.
2. In her novel, she chose to satirize social media influencers, highlighting their often superficial lifestyles.
3. The cartoonist aimed to satirize the government's response to climate change through clever illustrations.
4. His film brilliantly satirizes the world of reality television, exposing its manipulative nature.
5. The play was a sharp satire that sought to satirize the pretentiousness of the art world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/satirize>