

SATURATE

Meaning: To saturate means to soak or fill something completely with a liquid.

1. The sponge will saturate quickly if you leave it in water for too long.
2. The heavy rain began to saturate the ground, causing puddles to form everywhere.
3. Marketing efforts aim to saturate the market with our new product by the end of the month.
4. To create a rich sauce, you must saturate it with flavors from fresh herbs and spices.
5. The artist chose vibrant colors to saturate the canvas, bringing it to life with energy.
6. The heavy rain was enough to saturate the ground, causing puddles to form everywhere.
7. To achieve the desired flavor, the chef decided to saturate the dish with fresh herbs and spices.
8. The sponge will saturate quickly if it's placed in water for too long.
9. As the market became saturated with similar products, competition intensified among the brands.
10. The artist used bold colors to saturate the canvas, creating a vibrant and lively atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saturate>