

SATURATION

Meaning: Saturation refers to the intensity or purity of a color in visual art, or the state of being filled to capacity in a market context.

1. The saturation of the colors in the painting brought it to life.
2. As the market reached saturation, new businesses struggled to find a foothold.
3. The saturation of salt in the water made it difficult for fish to survive.
4. In photography, saturation affects how vivid and intense colors appear in an image.
5. The team worked tirelessly to increase the saturation of their marketing efforts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saturation>