

SAUNTER

Meaning: Saunter: to walk in a slow, relaxed manner, often for pleasure or enjoyment.

1. She decided to saunter through the park, taking in the sights and sounds of nature around her.
2. After a long week at work, he loved to saunter along the beach at sunset, letting the waves wash over his feet.
3. The children would saunter home from school, laughing and playing as they relished the freedom of the afternoon.
4. With no particular destination in mind, they chose to saunter through the quaint streets of the old town.
5. As the festival began, crowds began to saunter toward the main stage, eager to see the performances.
6. She decided to saunter through the park to enjoy the fresh air and blooming flowers.
7. After dinner, we took a leisurely saunter along the beach, listening to the waves crash.
8. He sauntered into the café, looking relaxed and ready to catch up with old friends.
9. On weekends, I love to saunter around the farmers' market, soaking in the vibrant atmosphere.
10. As the sun set, we sauntered down the winding path, captivated by the beauty of the evening.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saunter>