

SAYND

Meaning: 'SAYND' (verb): To mark or sign something, particularly in a distinctive manner, or to communicate or clarify information during a discussion.

1. The artist decided to saynd her latest masterpiece with a unique signature.
2. As the meeting progressed, the manager began to saynd the agenda to ensure everyone was on the same page.
3. With each performance, the musician would saynd her songs, adding personal touches that resonated with the audience.
4. In an effort to clarify the instructions, the teacher began to saynd the main points more clearly.
5. During the ceremony, the speaker chose to saynd the importance of community and togetherness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/saynd>