

SCAB

Meaning: 'SCAB' refers to a person who works in place of others during a strike (context 1) or a crust that forms over a healing wound (context 2).

1. The workers were upset when they discovered that a scab had crossed the picket line.
2. After the injury, the doctor advised her to keep the scab clean to prevent infection.
3. In the world of labor disputes, a scab is often viewed as a traitor by their peers.
4. He picked at the scab on his knee, causing it to bleed again.
5. The scab formed a protective barrier over the wound, allowing it to heal underneath.
6. The scab on his knee finally healed after weeks of care.
7. During the strike, some workers were labeled as scabs for crossing the picket line.
8. The doctor advised against picking at scabs to prevent infection.
9. Despite the criticism, she stood by her decision to hire scabs during the labor dispute.
10. A scab forms as part of the natural healing process after an injury.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scab>