

SCALPER

Meaning: A scalper is a person who buys tickets to events in bulk and resells them at a significantly higher price.

1. The scalper managed to sell concert tickets at triple their original price.
2. In the bustling market, a scalper quickly snatched up the hottest event passes.
3. Many fans were frustrated to find that a scalper had purchased all the tickets within minutes.
4. Some cities have enacted laws to combat the practices of ticket scalpers.
5. A savvy scalper can turn a hefty profit by anticipating demand for popular shows.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scalper>