

SCARD

Meaning: 'Scard' is an informal variation of 'scared,' meaning feeling frightened or anxious.

1. The sudden loud noise left her feeling scard and unsure of what to do next.
2. He tried to mask his scard expression with a brave smile as the roller coaster approached the steep drop.
3. After witnessing the accident, he walked around in a scard daze, struggling to process what had happened.
4. The scard look on the child's face prompted the teacher to quickly reassure him that everything was okay.
5. Feeling scard in the dark alley, she hurried her pace, trying to reach the safety of the crowded street.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scard>