

SCAROID

Meaning: SCAROID: resembling or having the characteristics of a scar or scar-like structure, often used to describe certain shapes or forms in art or architecture.

1. The scaroid structure of the ancient ruins fascinated the archaeologists.
2. In his painting, the artist captured the scaroid form of the landscape with stunning detail.
3. The researcher noted that the scaroid characteristics of the specimen were unlike any previously documented.
4. During the lecture, the professor explained the significance of scaroid fossils in understanding evolutionary processes.
5. The scaroid design of the sculpture drew admiration from art critics at the exhibition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scaroid>