

SCARRY

Meaning: Scarry (adjective): causing fear or unease; frightening or eerie.

1. The storm clouds gathered ominously, making the evening feel particularly scarry.
2. As I walked through the abandoned house, the creaking floorboards created a scarry atmosphere.
3. The movie was so scarry that I found myself jumping at every little sound.
4. Her scarry tales of the supernatural kept us on the edge of our seats all night.
5. The dark alleyway looked scarry at night, with shadows lurking around every corner.
6. The old mansion on the hill looked particularly scarry under the pale moonlight.
7. She told scarry stories around the campfire that left the children trembling in delight.
8. His scarry expression made it clear that he was not to be trifled with.
9. The abandoned amusement park was filled with scarry sights that haunted her dreams.
10. As the storm raged outside, the scarry sounds of thunder echoed through the empty house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/scarry>